

Judah Brownny whose secular name is Benoit Nayira Kassah is a reggae singer, songwriter, performing/recording artist originates from Ghana and resides in Europe.

His award winning accomplishments in France brought him to the international reggae music scene, as a result to collaborate with several music producers and to share the stage with well known names in reggae business.

During the very first active years ,he focused on doing live acts mainly rather than studio works as was the demand.

Currently, he is about to release an EP in winter 2020 with a single release "ALL I WANT" produced by HeavywavesMusic alongside various studio projects under the management of ZionGates Media Productions.

Judah Brownny as a benevolent artist, is also serving with his music real humanitarian causes and has raised funds from his gigs like the deadly fires in Athens Greece in summer 2018.
